

Right Sharing

of WORLD RESOURCES

Dear _____,

I have made a donation in your honor to Right Sharing of World Resources (RSWR). This donation will directly benefit women's self-help groups in Kenya, India, Guatemala, and Sierra Leone.

RSWR is a Quaker organization founded in 1967. For fifty years, they have been doing as William Penn suggested over 200 years ago: "Let us then see what love can do."

In Gratitude,

Right Sharing of World Resources is an independent Quaker not-for-profit organization pursuing the abundance of God's love through wealth redistribution. RSWR funds micro-enterprise projects with women in Kenya, India, Guatemala, and Sierra Leone.
