Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors of
Right Sharing of World Resources, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Right Sharing of World Resources, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Right Sharing of World Resources, Inc. as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Right Sharing of World Resources, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Right Sharing of World Resources, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Right Sharing of World Resources, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Right Sharing of World Resources, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

RIGHT SHARING OF WORLD RESOURCES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED JUNE 30, 2025 AND 2024

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

Right Sharing of World Resources, Inc. (the "Organization") is a nonprofit organization that works for equity and a life of dignity for all by promoting partnerships with women in four countries and encouraging those with diverse resources to embrace our shared responsibility for one another's well being.

The Organization partners with women's groups in under-resourced communities in India, Sierra Leone, Guatemala and Kenya. The Organization trains these groups and awards them grants to create self-managed, group-owned revolving loan funds that help women start or expand micro-businesses. Additional training is provided in the three years following the grant. The training and grants lead to long-term improvements in family well-being, including better education and health, reduced domestic violence, and increased women's leadership in the community.

In economically abundant communities, the Organization offers opportunities to reflect on our shared humanity and explore themes of scarcity, abundance, and the power of enough. It is the Organization's mission that "We are called to the right sharing of world resources, from the burden of materialism and poverty into the abundance of God's love, to work toward equity and a life of dignity through partnerships with our human family throughout the world." During the year ended June 30, 2025, the Organization worked on new materials and resources to explore the power of enough. Many of those materials and resources will be available to the general public in the coming fiscal year such as gratitude calendars, gratitude lesson plans, and a Power of Enough Workshop facilitation guide.

Between fiscal years 2016 and 2020, the Organization realized substantial year-end surpluses thanks to major gifts and bequests. As part of its 2021 Strategic Plan, the Board of Trustees determined to use these reserves to expand into a new country. In 2024, the Organization initiated work in Guatemala. This means that the Organization is in a period of intentional deficit spending which is expected to continue until at least fiscal year 2031. Meanwhile, efforts are underway to increase fundraising so that by fiscal year 2032, the Organization will no longer have deficit spending. The Board of Directors is monitoring this transition period closely, and is ready to make changes to expenses if revenues do not grow as expected.

The Organization's primary sources of revenue are from contributions and investment earnings.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Basis of Accounting

The accrual basis of accounting is used by the Organization for financial reporting purposes. Under the accrual basis of accounting, expenses are recognized when incurred and revenues are recognized when earned.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Net Assets

Net assets, revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor or grantor imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor (or certain grantor) restrictions. The governing board may designate a portion of these net assets for specific purposes.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor- (or certain grantor-) imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity. Donor-imposed restrictions are released when a restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both.

When contributions are received and the restrictions met within the same fiscal year, the amounts are reported as contributions without donor restrictions.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Organization considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

RIGHT SHARING OF WORLD RESOURCES, INC.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Grants and Contributions Receivable

Grants and contributions receivable are unconditional promises to give that are recognized as contributions when the promise is received. Grants and contributions receivable that are expected to be collected in less than one year are reported at net realizable value. Management believes that all outstanding promises to give are collectible in full, therefore, no allowance for uncollectible promises to give has been provided.

Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Accounting standards set a framework for measuring fair value using a three-tier hierarchy based on the extent to which inputs used in measuring fair value are observable in the market.

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices in markets that are not active, or inputs (interest rates, currency exchange rates, commodity rates and yield curves) that are observable or corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3: Inputs that are not observable in the market and reflect management's judgment about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment consist of leasehold improvements and equipment that are reported in the statement of financial position at cost, if purchased, and at fair value at the date of donation, if donated. Property and equipment are capitalized if it has a cost of $1,000 or more and a useful life when acquired of more than 1 year. Repairs and maintenance that do not significantly increase the useful life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the term of the lease. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, as follows:

Leasehold Improvements	5 years
Equipment	3 years

The Organization had no property and equipment as of June 30, 2025 and 2024.

RIGHT SHARING OF WORLD RESOURCES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Contributions

The Organization recognizes contributions when cash, securities or other assets, an unconditional promise to give, or a notification of a beneficial interest, is received. All contributions are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions unless the use of the contributed assets is specifically restricted by the donor. A conditional promise to give, that is, those with a measurable performance or other barrier, and a right of return, are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been substantially met. When contributions are received and the restrictions met within the same fiscal year, the amounts are reported as contributions without donor restrictions.

Contributions of Nonfinancial Assets

Contributions of nonfinancial assets consist primarily of board member payments of board expenses and are recorded at the respective fair value of the goods received.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of providing the various programs and support activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities and functional expenses. The statements of functional expenses presents the natural expense detail by function. Expenses directly attributable to a specific functional area of the Organization are reported as expenses of those functional areas. The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributed to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, these expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include payroll, payroll taxes, payroll processing fees, and insurance are allocated on the basis of time and effort. Other office related expenses are allocated based on estimated cost. The Organizations routinely evaluates its methodology for allocating expenses for accuracy, and under a new Executive Director, estimates made by management changed in the year ended June 30, 2025 compared to the year ended June 30, 2024; however, the general nature of the Organization's activities has not changed from previous years and programming remains at the heart of everything.

Investment and Spending Policies

The Organization has adopted an investment policy for invested assets that attempts to preserve the real purchasing power of the assets, provide a stream of income to be made available for spending, and keep pace with inflation. The investment policy establishes a return objective through diversification of asset classes.

RIGHT SHARING OF WORLD RESOURCES, INC.

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Organization relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Organization targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk parameters.

The Organization adopted a formal spending policy to calculate the amount of money available for the following year's operational spending that may be drawn from the Organization's invested funds. Dividends earned in a particular investment fund are used towards operational spending as well, which is currently set at 4%. As deemed necessary, the Board of Directors may approve to withdraw funds in excess of the operational spending amount.

Assets Held and Liabilities Under Split-Interest Agreements

Charitable Gift Annuities

Under charitable gift annuity contracts, the Organization receives title to contributed assets and agrees to make fixed recurring payments over the stipulated period. Contributed assets are recorded at fair value on the date of receipt. The related liability for future payments to be made to the specified beneficiaries is recorded at fair value using present value techniques and risk-adjusted discount rates designed to reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the liability. The excess of contributed assets over the annuity liability is recorded as a contribution. In subsequent years, the liability for future payments to the donor is reduced by payments made to the donor and is adjusted to reflect changes in the fair value of the liability at the end of the year. Upon termination of the annuity contract, the remaining liability is removed and recognized as income.

Advertising

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expenses were $5,225 and $4,570 for the years ended June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively, and are included in Marketing and Communication expenses on the accompanying Statements of Functional Expenses.

Income Taxes

The Organization is a nonprofit organization exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and classified by the Internal Revenue Service as other than a private foundation. Accordingly, there is no provision for income taxes in the accompanying financial statements. The Organization follows the accounting guidance for uncertain tax positions. The Organization believes that it has appropriate support for any tax position taken and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements.

Subsequent Events

The Organization evaluated subsequent events through the date that the financial statements were available to be issued. The Organization is not aware of any significant events that occurred subsequent to the statement of financial position date but prior to October 9, 2025 that would have a material impact on the financial statements.

NOTE 10 - RETIREMENT PLAN

The Organization sponsors retirement plans for the benefit of its eligible employees. Through December 2024, the Organization maintained a SIMPLE IRA plan. Effective January 2025, the Organization established a 403(b) defined contribution retirement plan. The change from the SIMPLE IRA plan to the 403(b) plan during the year represents a significant change in the Organization's retirement plan structure. This change did not have a material effect on the comparability of retirement plan expense between periods. The expense recognized for each plan represents contributions applicable to employee service during the respective periods in which each plan was in effect.
